

RESOLUTION OF THE
UTAH STATE ADVISORY COUNCIL ON SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

December 5, 1996

“BE IT RESOLVED that the State Advisory Council on Science and Technology understands the need to replace outdated scientific equipment and to provide modern technical support for equipment and laboratories in our colleges and universities and, therefore, supports the concept of a science initiative to be presented to the legislature for funding.”