Jack Smec, LSI’s logistics management and acquisitions expert with more than 40 years of government contract and DLA experience, will conduct the webinar.

The Procurement Technical Assistance Center (PTAC) assists small businesses with all levels of government contracting-federal, state, and local. Counselors provide one-on-one instruction that helps clients identify contracting opportunities that lead to growth of market share and revenue. The PTAC Team (PTAC & LSI) provides government contracting services at no cost to the Utah small business community.
