

10.8%

Statewide without broadband internet

Percentage of households without broadband internet

- Hard hit urban counties had 8% more households without broadband internet compared to urban counties overall.
- Rural counties had 2% more households without broadband relative to urban households.
- Nearly half of San Juan’s population does not have broadband (47%)
- Majority of Native American residents in San Juan county do not have broadband internet (78%).

7.9%

children statewide without broadband

Children without broadband

- Hard hit urban areas had 10% more children without broadband compared to urban areas overall.
- Rural and urban areas had similar rates of broadband access
- San Juan county had 32% more children without access compared to the rural cohort.

15.8%

Statewide unemployed without broadband without broadband access by employment status

- All geographies had a larger number of unemployed without broadband compared to employed
- Largest disparity being in San Juan county.
- 10% of rural and urban employed population does not have broadband compared to 14% for hard hit urban areas

Broadband coverage by county

Definitions

- Urban: Salt Lake, Weber, Davis and Utah Counties
- Rural: all non-urban counties combined
- San Juan: heavily affected by the pandemic
- Hard hit urban: neighborhoods heavily affected by the pandemic namely: Rose park, Fairpark, Poplar and Glendale
- Children: Households with children younger than 18 years
- Unemployed/employed: Portion of labor force participants that are either employed or unemployed (civilian population 16 years and up )

Sources

U.S. Census Bureau (2018). Types of internet subscription. Retrieved from [<https://data.census.gov/cedsci/table>]

Cooper, T. (2020, February 06). Internet access in Utah: stats & figures. Retrieved from <https://broadbandnow.com/Utah>